INTRODUCTION OF ARCHBISHOP NEARY FOR THE DIOCESAN DIRECTORY 2016

A number of years ago a faith-inspired and scholarly appreciation of a living community of faith was presented in Fr Kieran Waldron's, Archdiocese of Tuam – An Illustrated History, an elegant and remarkably researched work. For several years his brother, Fr Peter Waldron edited the diocesan directory, whenever the need arose. We are deeply indebted and thankful to both Kieran and Peter for all their work on diocesan publications.

This year, Fr Fintan Monahan, Diocesan Secretary has taken on the task of editing the directory, at the request of the Council of Priests. Already editor of the diocesan magazine, New Dawn and managing the diocesan website along with various diocesan social media outlets – it is perhaps convenient and appropriate to combine the roles and duties of all together.

In the Diocesan Directory, like previous directories we are presented with a road map for our Archdiocese. The people, religious – priests and Archbishops who form the people of God of Tuam are contained in these pages. Parishes, church areas, Religious houses – places of pilgrimage, various ministries, church organisations, diocesan committees provide an insight into the evangelisation in which so many are energetically involved. Paging through this directory one gets a clear sense of the collaboration which is taking place between priest and people, locally and also at diocesan level.

This directory will be a great resource for all who wish to access diocesan and parish information and in that way will, I believe, play a very important role in providing people with a sense of diocesan identity. I hope this will help to give people a sense of what we are trying to achieve and bring about in the planning document and process outlined in Journeying Together in Faith: Proposals for Nurturing and Developing the Catholic Faith in the Archdiocese of Tuam 2013-2020.

I warmly congratulate Fr Fintan Monahan and his many helpers on the meticulous approach in collecting, collating and presenting all the information contained within these covers. Many thanks to many of the clergy and parish personnel along with the staff of Media West who have assisted him in sending on data and in the work of proofing.

Eolaire tabhachtach, úsáideach é seo lán le h-eolas riachtanach d'aon duine a bhfuil spéis aige/aici in Ard-dheoise Thuama. Tá bua faoi leith ag an eagarthóir an t-eolas seo a fhoilsiú ar bhealach suimiúil, tarraingteach. Táimid faoi chomaoin ag an Ath. Fiontán Ó Monacháin as ucht na hoibre atá curtha i gcrích aige. Go gcúití Dia a shaothar leis.

800 years celebrations for Ballintubber Abbey

Ballintubber Abbey, founded 1216 AD, is an important centre of pilgrimage and faith formation in the Tuam Archdiocese.

Fr Stephen Ludden initiated this role for Ballintubber, following the historical restoration of 'the Abbey that refused to die' by Fr Tommy Egan. In 1986, Archbishop Joseph Cunnane appointed Fr Frank Fahey to Ballintubber with a view to continuing the Abbey's development as a Pilgrimage and Retreat Centre. It will be celebrating its Octo-Centenary this year, 2016.

To further this development, the Abbey Trust was formed, with representatives from the local, diocesan and the wider community, under Archbishop Cassidy.

Tóchar Phádraig, the ancient pilgrim path to Croagh Patrick, was brought back into use again with the co-operation of 46 farmers. Approx 1,000 visitors now walk it annually.

The grounds of the Abbey were landscaped with life-size representations of the Stations of the Cross and the Mysteries of the Rosary. Church Island, the 6th century Monastic Island on Lough Carra, has been developed as a place of reflective solitude.

In 1994, the Dorter part of the Abbey was restored to provide facilities for conducting retreats. It is hoped that it will be extended for the octo-centenary 2016

The Celtic Furrow, opened in 2001, serves the adult and post-primary retreats and is operative as an interpretative centre during the summer.

Archbishop Michael Neary has supported, encouraged and facilitated this ongoing vision for Ballintubber.

RETREATS-FAITH FORMATION

Retreats in Ballintubber consist of: Confirmation retreats from February to May; post primary retreats from September to May; and adult retreats in the months of July and August.

There is a qualified team in place at the Abbey to conduct these retreats. It is the policy of the Trust to have the best qualified personnel conducting and facilitating retreats.

- The Confirmation retreats serve most of the schools in the diocese with approximately 1,500 pupils attending annually
- The post-primary retreats are booked out every year.
- Parish, Pastoral and Prayer groups are availing of the retreat facilities on Church Island, at the Abbey and in the Celtic Furrow.
- Pilgrimage groups are guided along the Tóchar to Croagh Patrick.
- A tour of the Abbey and grounds is itself a spiritual and Faith formation experience for the many visitors who come to the Abbey.
- Perpetual Adoration takes place in The Adoration Chapel each day from 9am to 12midnight.
- The Passion Play, (Mon, Tue, Wed) of Holy week attracts hundreds each year from an even wider distance
- Weddings – The ambience and the grounds of the Abbey attracts many couples to celebrate their weddings here

PARISH CLUSTERS IN TUAM ARCHDIOCESE

One of the recommendations of the planning document 'The Future Serving of the Parishes of the Archdiocese of Tuam (2008-2013)' was that the parishes of the diocese would be grouped into 15 clusters and that a convener would be appointed to each cluster.

The purpose of the grouping of parishes into clusters is to ensure that the pastoral needs of parishes are met with the available resources. Among the hopes of the grouping of parishes is that the communities involved might share personnel, resources, training, formation as well as sharing administrative tasks.

In 2013, a follow-up planning document was published entitled 'Journeying Together in Faith: Proposals for Nurturing and Developing the Catholic Faith in the Archdiocese of Tuam 2013-2020'. This document builds on the recommendations of the 2008 document and makes proposals on how the pastoral needs of the parishes might be served between 2013 and 2020. Both documents envision parishes working together in cluster groupings.

The cluster conveners along with representatives of the pastoral councils are invited to three meetings each year where the pastoral challenges facing parishes and the diocese are addressed and the initiatives that work well in the various clusters are discussed. The conveners and pastoral council representatives bring these discussions back to their respective parishes and pastoral councils.

The convener meetings take place in Knock House Hotel. The current secretary of the convener meetings is Mary Forde from Knock Parish Pastoral Council.

In January 2016, the Cluster Conveners were as follows:

Fr John Cosgrove, Castlebar, Fr Charlie McDonnell, Westport, Fr Tod Nolan, Newport, Fr Austie Fergus, Mayoabbey, Fr Stephen Farragher, Ballyhaunis, Fr Pádraig O Connor, Mountbellew, Fr Des Walsh, Lackagh, Fr Ciarán Blake, An Ceathrú Rua, Fr Pat Farragher, Tuam, Fr Paddy Mooney, Glenamaddy, Fr Ronnie Boyle, Letterfrack, Fr Hughie Loftus, Corrandulla, Fr Conal Eustace, Ballinrobe, Fr Martin O Connor, Ballindine.

COUNCIL OF PRIESTS

The Code of Canon Law defines a Council of Priests of a Diocese as: a group of priests who represent the presbyterium and who are to be, as it were, the Bishop’s senate.

The Council’s role is to assist the Bishop, in accordance with the law, in the governance of the diocese, so that the pastoral welfare of that portion of the people of God entrusted to the Bishop may be effectively promoted. (Canon 495)

The Council’s role is to assist the Bishop in a consultative capacity.

The Tuam Diocesan Council holds office for three years and is made up of:

- (a) Ex officio members, Archbishop Neary and Rt. Rev. Msgr Dermot Moloney, Vicar General
- (b) Elected representatives of the various Deaneries and age groups
- (c) Individual priests appointed by the Archbishop for specific reasons

MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT COUNCIL:

The Sixteenth Council was elected in 2015. They meet in the Diocesan Resource Centre in the Grounds of St Jarlath’s College. Rev. Seán Cunningham is Chairman, Canon Brendan Kilcoyne is Vice-Chairperson, Very Rev. Michéal Mannion is the Treasurer and Rev. Shane Sullivan is the Secretary.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION – DIOCESAN COMMITTEE

This Eucharistic Adoration committee is equipped and trained to set up a system of viable weekly adoration in any parish of the diocese, at the invitation of priests. Where a previous system of adoration exists, then the task undertaken will be to strengthen and expand it. Several parishes have requested a weekend presentation from the committee. It is expected that there will be a great uptake from parishes of the diocese in 2016, and 12 contact teams are now available to respond to parishes as they make contact.

The Chairperson of the new Committee is Sr Anne Maria O'Shaughnessy, Convent of Mercy, Dunmore, who may be contacted at 086 8683619, or via email at: shaughanne@gmail.com.

Grandparents from the Tuam Archdiocese at a recent celebration Mass.

Catholic Grandparents Association

There are several branches in different parishes around the diocese and worldwide. An annual celebration of Grandparents is held in Tuam Cathedral around the feast of Saints Anne and Joachim in July and the big annual pilgrimage to Our Lady's Shrine, Knock is held in mid-September.

This association grew out of our Grandparents Pilgrimages, where thousands of grandparents gathered in recent years, united by the same goal to do the very best we can for our children and grandchildren.

Grandparents have no agenda; they simply want the best for their grandchildren. They want them to be good, decent human beings, to know the difference between right and wrong, able to make good moral decisions and, if they go astray along the way, to be able to find their way back to a loving, forgiving, non judgemental God.

Grandparents' vital contribution to the family, the Church and society was never as important as now. We are living in unprecedented times, with constantly changing social and moral values.

Sometimes we feel like we are failing. We are not. We can never fail so long as we keep on doing what we are doing – praying, showing the way and passing our Faith.

At the heart of the Catholic Grandparents Association is the firm belief that this is our duty, our responsibility, our vocation, and we must do what we can. This is probably the most important job we will ever have and, for many of us, it may be our last. It is one from which we can never retire, so let us do our best. We owe it to our grandchildren.

May God bless you, your grandchildren, and your children.

MISSION STATEMENT OF DYC:

Tuam Diocesan Youth Council is inspired by Jesus' special love and care for young people. It seeks to help young people to live as followers of Jesus and to take an active role in the life and ministry of our Church. Tuam Diocesan Youth Council endeavours to ensure that all young people from our diocese are afforded opportunities to celebrate, experience, live and explore their faith in meaningful ways. It will do this by facilitating, supporting and resourcing faith events at diocesan and parish level.

Diocesan Family Centre Castlebar

The Diocesan Family Life Services were set up in 1995 through the Archdiocese of Tuam and the HSE. The services continue to be delivered around the region and at the Family Centre, Chapel St, Castlebar.

PERSONNEL:

Director: Cathal Kearney.

Clinical Director: Michael Burke, Senior Clinical Psychologist.

Board of Management: Is made up of a variety of volunteers from different aspects of Community life. The current chairperson is Pearce O'Malley.

SERVICES INCLUDE:

Counselling

This service is predominantly an adult service and caters for a wide variety of difficulties that might arise for individuals or couples. The service does not work with addiction issues however, as there are specialist services available for this area of work. People attending counselling are asked to contribute up to €30 a session or a lesser amount, whichever they can afford. However many people attending the service are unable to contribute anything and this does not prevent them accessing the service.

Bereavement Support Services

We have five bereavement support services around the region. This service is provided by trained volunteers. This service is free of charge. Contact: Tuam 093 24577. Claremorris 094 9362069. Headford 093 36446. Westport 098 28871. Castlebar 094 9025900.

Suicide Prevention and Postvention Services

Much of the work of the Centre is to improve people's quality of life and in some instances where a person may be at risk of self harm to reduce this risk. The Mayo Suicide Bereavement Liaison Service also operates from the Family Centre. This service enables us to journey with those who are bereaved by suicide. We can work with them in our own centre or visit them in their own homes as they may wish.

This service can accessed through 094 90 25900 or through 087 2172866, or Email mairenidh@thefamilycentre.com

Family Mediation Service

This is provided in the Family Centre in Castlebar on three days a week. It is provided through the Legal Aid Board. The aim of the service is to help couples who are separating to do so in as constructive a manner as possible and particularly to have regard to the welfare of any children affected by the separation. Tel. 094 9035120

Education and Training

The Centre provides up to 60 courses a year under the headings of Personal Development, Family and Parenting, Bereavement and Loss, Professional Development and Faith and Spirituality.

Spiritual support

Individual Spiritual guidance is provided in the Family Centre in Castlebar to help people to explore the meaning of their lives in a faith context.

For more information on these or other services contact the Diocesan Family Centre Castlebar. Email: info@thefamilycentre.com, www.thefamilycentre.com, 094 9025900.

PLANNING YOUR MARRIAGE

RESERVING THE CHURCH:

As soon as you have chosen a date for your marriage, please consult with your local parish to ensure that the date is available in the Church. Please note: the reservation of the Church is made on the understanding that you are free to marry both in civil law and in the law of the Church. If either of you has ever been married previously, (whether in a Church or in a civil ceremony), or if you are in any doubt about your freedom to marry, please mention this at the time of making your request. This will help to avoid any unforeseen complications.

THREE MONTHS NOTICE TO THE PARISH:

A mature decision to marry is not something you arrive at on the spur of the moment. The experience of the Church would suggest that marriages which take place at short notice, or at a very young age, may not be based on a mature decision, and may therefore be more at risk. For this reason, it is required that each person being married should notify his / her local priest (i.e. in the parish where you are currently resident) at least three months before the marriage.

MINIMUM AGE:

To get married in a Church in the Archdiocese of Tuam a person must be 18 years of age or over on the date of the wedding.

CHURCH MARRIAGE AND CIVIL LAW:

In accordance with the provisions of the Civil Registration Act 2004 (Section 51.3c) your marriage may be solemnized by a priest or deacon who is registered within the state as a solemniser. For the avoidance of doubt, in the Archdiocese of Tuam, a priest or deacon, whether of the diocese or otherwise, is authorised to celebrate or solemnise a marriage only:

in a Church designated for that purpose by the bishop with the delegation of the parish priest or administrator (unless he has general delegation in writing)

for a man and a woman who are free to marry in accordance with the law of the Church

It is the responsibility of the couple to produce the Marriage Registration Form at the Church, to sign it immediately after the ceremony, and to bring it for registration to the office of the civil registrar within one month.

Details with regard to the Civil Registration can be obtained on www.groireland.ie.

The Registration offices:

Galway: 25, Newcastle Road 091 546277.

Castlebar: New Antrim Street 094 9023249

Roscommon: Lanesboro Road 090 6637508

PRE-MARRIAGE PREPARATION:

We generally prepare carefully for anything which is important. Preparation for marriage could be looked at under two headings. preparation is about gathering information about married life which will help you to make the big decision, and all the other decisions which follow from that.

Preparation is also about assessing your own personal readiness for marriage, and the maturity of your relationship. Nobody else can prepare you, but various people can help, including family members, friends, and the priest of your parish.

PRE-MARRIAGE COURSES:

Some formal preparation for marriage must be undertaken. Participation in a pre-marriage course is required by the Archdiocese. Most courses provide a certain amount of input on questions such as finance, home-making, fertility, parenthood, and preparing the marriage celebration. The real value of the courses is probably in that they help to focus your own discussion, and provide the opportunity of talking with other couples in a 'safe environment'.

SACRAMENTS:

It is the responsibility of the Church to assist people in preparing for the Sacraments. We do not normally contract this responsibility out to commercial agencies. Where the Sacrament of Marriage is concerned, Accord is our own diocesan agency and is entrusted with the mission of assisting couples who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. They do this in partnership with the priests who will also meet each couple individually to support them in deepening their understanding of the Sacrament and preparing the liturgical celebration. Needless to say, if couples wish to do another course in addition to the above, they are free to do so. There is so much preparation for the day itself, that a little more preparation for a lifetime of commitment would not go astray. For further information see www.accord.ie/services/marriage-preparation and select by region.

ACCORD:

Catholic Marriage Care Service, is an Agency of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference. It has centres located throughout the dioceses of Ireland. Its ministry is primarily concerned with supporting the sacrament of marriage by helping couples as they prepare for marriage and offering support to them in their marriage relationship. ACCORD's aim is to promote a better understanding of Christian marriage and to help couples initiate, sustain and enrich their commitment to one another and to family life. ACCORD's core services include Marriage Preparation, Marriage Counselling and Relationship and Sexuality Education (RSE) through its schools programmes. For further information phone your local ACCORD Centre, or ACCORD Central Office, or visit www.accord.ie.

CHURCH DOCUMENTATION:

Your priest will guide you through the preparation of the documentation required for your marriage in the Catholic Church.

MARRIAGE BETWEEN TWO CATHOLICS:

Pre-Nuptial Enquiry:

Each person completes this form with the priest in his / her present parish of residence. No other priest is authorised to carry out this procedure without the consent of your parish priest. This is to ensure that someone is seen to be responsible for the process, and to protect you from any complications which might arise if the process were not correctly carried out. The PNE is a gathering of personal details for the register, a way of establishing your freedom to marry, and a statement of your intent to marry in accordance with the Christian vision of marriage. The form is provided by the priest.

Baptismal Certificate:

Each of you will need a Baptismal Certificate which has been issued and dated not more than six months prior to the date of your marriage. This can be obtained by contacting the Church where you were Baptised. It should be given to the priest preparing your pre-nuptial enquiry. It is desirable that you also obtain a certificate of Confirmation. This may be included on your Baptism Certificate, if the register has been updated.

Statement of Freedom:

A letter of freedom is required from the parishes you have lived in. A sworn affidavit or statutory declaration of freedom to marry is acceptable also.

INTER-CHURCH MARRIAGE:

Marriage between a Catholic and a Christian of another denomination is quite common. The Catholic partner requires the documents already mentioned above, and will also need to apply for a dispensation for inter-church marriage.

The purpose of this is to help you as a couple to ensure that you have discussed any issues, related to your difference of religious denomination, which might otherwise be a cause of difficulty for you in the future.

The partner of the other denomination will need a baptismal certificate, and a sworn affidavit or written statement from a parent or other close relative to the effect that he / she has never been married previously, either in a civil or a religious ceremony.

MARRIAGE WITH A PERSON WHO IS NOT A CHRISTIAN:

Arrangements can also be made to celebrate a marriage in the Catholic Church, between a Catholic and a person who is not baptised. This should be discussed in the first instance with the priest in your parish of residence.

WHO PREPARES THE PAPERS WITH YOU?

As a general principle the person responsible is the priest or deacon in your present parish of residence. If this is outside of Ireland, the papers, once prepared are forwarded to the Bishop of the Diocese in which you are living, who checks them, and sends them to: The Chancellor, Archbishop's House, Tuam, Co. Galway, where they will be checked before being sent on to the parish where the marriage is to be celebrated. This process can take some time, so it is advisable to begin no later than three months before the marriage.

PLANNING THE CEREMONY:

The heart of your wedding day is the making of your commitment to each other, in the presence of your families and friends. Though it may last less than an hour, the marriage ceremony will be the focal point of the day.

You are the ministers of the Sacrament of Marriage, because it is you who give yourselves to each other. The priest is present as witness to your commitment on behalf of the Christian community, and to bless your union. For the celebration of your marriage, there are many options open to you. The priest will help you to plan the liturgy.

A very useful book to help couples preparing the marriage ceremony is A Wedding of Your Own by Padraic McCarthy, (Veritas Publications). It contains a wide selection of Scripture readings, as well as the alternative forms for the exchange of consent, and the other variable parts of the ceremony. The web site www.gettingmarried.ie includes similar information, and offers you a tool for designing your marriage booklet.

WHAT KIND OF CELEBRATION?

Generally speaking, in the case of two Catholics, the marriage ceremony takes place during Mass, after you have listened to the Scripture readings. This is particularly appropriate, because the Mass is the celebration of Christ's gift of himself in love for his people. It is also possible to incorporate your marriage ceremony in a celebration of Scripture readings, prayers, and music, but without the Mass. This may be appropriate in the case of an inter-Church marriage, or in the case of a marriage between Catholics who don't regularly attend Mass.

MUSIC:

Music and singing can make an important contribution to the celebration of your marriage. Some couples like traditional pieces (e.g., Ave Maria etc.), while others prefer something more modern. The most important consideration is that the music and singing that you choose reflect the meaning of Christian Marriage. There is a fairly wide selection available. A member of the parish music team will be happy to advise you.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION (CONFESSION):

Your marriage is a commitment to one another. Since you are marrying as Christians, it is also a renewal of your Christian commitment. (It may be your first formal Christian commitment as an adult). The Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) is an acknowledgement of our human weakness, and a celebration of God's forgiveness. It is very much the Sacrament of new beginnings, and we encourage you to make it part of your preparation for marriage.

OFFERINGS:

On the assumption that the marriage takes place in your own parish and that you are supporting your parish financially on an on-going basis, there is no fixed fee for the use of the Church. It is normal to make an offering which reflects what can afford, and which you feel is appropriate to the significance of your marriage. If you are not a parishioner, or if you do not contribute regularly, this should be taken into account when considering the nature of your offering.

In the event that a visiting priest celebrates the marriage, any offering you make to him is a separate matter, for your own discretion. Other fees (e.g. organist, singer, florist, photographer etc.) have nothing to do with the parish and are arranged directly by you.

AFTERWARDS:

Wherever you live after your marriage, your life as husband and wife is important to the community of the parish, and to the future of the Church. Remember that the love you bring to each other, and to those around you, needs to be nourished through your own closeness to Christ. Each time you participate in the Mass, you will not only celebrate the self-giving love of Christ, but you will be reminded of your own gift to each other, and you will hear His Word, calling you always to new ways of living that love.

Compiled by Kieran Waldron

The list is based on many diocesan sources, including the unpublished work by the late Fr Martin J Heaney (up to 1970). The handwritten version of his 500-page Sacerdotes Tuamenses has been digitised through the good offices of the Special Collections Staff at Hardiman Library, NUI Galway and is now accessible to researchers at the library itself. (The date of death, and the parish of last assignment, is given for each priest)
